Ineligible Courses/Programs

Florida State University does not accept State Employee Waivers for the following:

- Graduate courses in the Colleges of Law and Medicine
- Undergraduate limited access programs
- Dissertation, thesis, directed individual study, internship, or other one-to-one instructional courses
- Audited courses
- Center for Academic and Professional Development
- All non-state funded courses (including some distance learning courses that are funded solely by student tuition and fees) - contact the academic department to inquire about course funding.

Procedures

- Complete this form.
- Obtain the approval of your supervisor and agency head (or designee).
- Obtain the approval of the academic department offering the course after the drop/add period has ended. Approval is granted only for eligible courses which have space available.
- Take the waiver form to Student Financial Services on the date listed above between 7:00 am and 5:00 pm.

The tuition waiver will not be accepted for any courses added to your schedule prior to the designated state employee registration day.

Section 127, Internal Revenue Code, permits employers to offer undergraduate and graduate education benefits to employees on a tax-free basis, up to $5,250 per calendar year. If the annual value of the state employee fee waivers exceeds $5,250, then the excess will be reported to State Payrolls as taxable income.

I acknowledge that it is my responsibility to have the State Employee Tuition Waiver form signed by the appropriate academic department representative for each of the course(s) listed above. I acknowledge that I assume personal financial liability for any course registered for prior to the fifth day of classes or dropped after the waiver has been submitted. I acknowledge that any student fees associated with the course(s) covered by this waiver do not cover admission to the Bobby E. Leach Center or FSU Football/Basketball games.
