

Tax & Compliance 2200A University Center Tallahassee FL 32306 (850) 644-9480

DEPARTMENTAL CASH HANDLING PROCEDURES INTERNAL CONTROL QUESTIONNAIRE

DEPARTMENT DEPT	ID		_
LOCATION			_
CONTACT PHON	E#		_
DEAN / CHAIRMAN / DEPARTMENT HEAD			_
PURPOSE: To determine compliance with University Controller's Cash Collection Policy eligibility for authorization as cash collection point.	and Procedures and to detern	nine
		Yes	No	N/A
I. Does your department collect more than $5,000 annually?
If yes, have you been approved as a Cash Collection Site by the Controller's Office	e?
II. Have you reviewed the Controller's Cash Management Policy ?
III. Are there written cash handling procedures established for the department?
IV. Have all employees signed the FSU Cash Management Employee Policy and Proce	edure Acknowledgement?
V. Are new employees required to have background checks?
VI. COLLECTION OF MONIES			•
A. Is the individual collecting money prevented from having billing, depositing, or reconciliation responsibilities?	r
B. Does each person paying in person receive a receipt?
C. Are checks made payable to Florida State University?
D. Are all checks accepted in accordance with OP-D-2-B5 Payments Received By include all required payor information?	Check, and do they

	Yes	No	N/A
E. Is a photo ID required each time a check is presented in person?
F. Are checks initialed certifying verification of the ID?
G. Are Student Business Services (SBS) returned check lists reviewed for previously tendered dishonored checks?
H. Do you endorse checks with the restrictive stamp provided by Cash Management & Banking Services?
I. Are multiple cashiers forbidden to work out of the same cash drawers or use the same cash receipt book?
VII. MONIES RECEIVED BY MAIL
A. Are checks immediately endorsed upon receipt?
B. Are mail logs utilized for unidentified or forwarded items?
C. Are receipted mail payments attached or kept with that day's log?
D. Are all mail items processed/recorded the same day as received?
VIII. RECORDING OF MONIES			1
A. Are all cash collections receipted in the official FSU receipt book, processed on a cash register, or documented in a departmental log?
B. Are FSU pre-numbered receipts, both those used and those on hand, regularly accounted for?
C. Are copies of voided receipts retained and accounted for?
D. Are all voided transactions approved and initialed by a supervisor or designee?
E. When leaving the premises, does the responsible employee secure monies to prevent unauthorized use?
F. Each time there is a change of operators, are terminals, cash registers, etc. balanced in the presence of both employees?
G. Are all cash registers, etc. cleared and balanced to collections at least daily?
H. Is a "draft capture" system utilized for MasterCard, Visa, and debit cards?
I. Is a copy of the summary total report for Credit/Debit card collections forwarded to Cash Management & Banking Services within two days?
IX. BALANCING OF MONIES
A. Does the cashier/collection employee compute and reconcile monies collected at the end of each day to supporting documents?
B. Does the cashier/collection employee initial the balancing support document?
C. Are overages/shortages in collections explained in writing and initialed by the responsible employee and supervisor?

	Yes	No	N/A
D. Is the Office of Inspector General Services notified of significant shortages in collections?
E. Are all cash register transaction numbers kept in sequence?
F. Are cash register voids and zero transactions properly approved and documented?
X. DEPOSITING OF MONIES	•		1
A. Is the individual responsible for deposit preparation prevented from having billing, collection, or reconciliation responsibilities?
B. Are deposits forwarded to SBS via secured bag?
C. Are deposits made directly to a bank sent by armored car?
D. When deposits are made directly to a bank, is proper documentation sent to Cash Management & Banking Services within two days?
E. Are credit/debit card payments balanced and transmitted at least daily?
F. Are all currency, coins, checks, and money orders deposited daily?
If monies are not deposited daily, do collections of currency and coins total less than $100 and collections of checks and money orders total less than $500?
Are all collections, regardless of amount, deposited within five business days?
XI. RECONCILIATION OF MONIES
A. Is the individual responsible for reconciliations prevented from having any other cash handling or billing responsibilities?
B. Are cash collections verified to the applicable deposits by an independent employee who is not involved in the cash handling operation? Note: The cash collections (receipts/cash register reports/log) shall be traced to the corresponding deposit amounts (bank deposit slips/Deposit Journals).
C. Are cash collections verified to the OMNI ledger by an independent employee who is not involved in the cash handling operation?
D. Are reconciliations performed at least monthly for each deposit area?
E. Is the total of individual accounts receivable balances balanced to a control total each month? (Control total = last month's accounts receivable + current charges - current collections)
XII. SECURITY OF MONIES COLLECTED			•
A. Does the area in which collections are made have access limited to authorized personnel?
B. Are monies kept in a locked drawer, cash box, etc. at all times?
C. Is a safe or vault on-site and utilized for securing monies overnight?

	Yes	No	N/A
D. If a safe or vault is used, is a dual control system utilized?
E. Can responsibility for funds or collections be fixed on one person at all times?
F. Are staff members prohibited from making loans or cashing personal checks from cash funds?
G. Are individuals prevented from possessing both parts of the dual control system?
H. Are transfers of monies and changes in the personnel handling money documented through sign-offs and/or drawer counts?
I. Are safe combinations changed when there is staff turnover?
J. Are keys to safes/cash boxes and safe combinations kept in a secure, secret place?
K. Do cash registers have controls that prevent operator from backing out transactions or resetting readings?
L. Is access to cash register keys limited to cash register operators and supervisors?
Completed By: Date:
Reviewed By: Date:			