

Florida State University Peer Review and Research Board and Committee Member Services Certification Statement Form

Peer review is defined as an evaluation of scientific, academic, or professional work by others working in the same field. A research board or committee member payment is defined as a payment to an individual (not a corporation, business, or partnership) who is not a current or recent employee of the University for personal advisory services while acting in a board or committee member capacity. This includes Community Advisory Boards, Scientific Advisory Boards, Committee Members, and other similar activities such as consulting, advising, reviewing, or sharing opinions on a project or grant, where the individual is considered an expert in the field and the services are conducted as a board or committee member.

Account Code: 740241
